From Saturday June 30. to Tuesday July 3. 1733.

Hague, July 10, N. S.

MAjor General Savornin is promoted to the Rank of Lieutenant General, in the Room of Baron Keppell deceaſed. Yeſterday and to Day the States of the Province of Holland being aſſembled, have diſpoſed of ſeveral Military Employments that were vacant. The Command of the Regiment of Foot Guards is conferred on Brigadier Waſſenaer, whoſe Regiment of Dragoons will not be diſpoſed of till the next Seſſion of the States of Holland. The Command of the Regiment of Foot of the late Baron Keppel is conferred on M. Tilly his Lieutenant Colonel. The Commiſſion of Major of the Horſe Guards is given to M. de Hompeſch, Nephew of the late General of that Name, and Son in Law of M. Boetſelaer. The ſaid States have likewiſe diſpoſed of ſeveral Companies of Foot and Troops of Horſe in the Guards and in other Regiments. It is not doubted but M. de Boetſelaer will obtain for his Son the Office of Commiſſioner of the Admiralty of Amſterdam, vacant by the Death of M. de Noortwyk, which Lieutenant General Waſſenaer might have had if he would have quitted his Military Poſt in the Land Service. On Sunday laſt died M. Freyman, Major General and Lieutenant Colonel of the Foot Guards, ſo that there are two more Vacancies to fill up. The Marqueſs de Fenelon received on the 8th Inſtant an Expreſs from his Court, and was Yeſterday and to Day in Conference with certain Deputies of this State: Count Zinzendorff has likewiſe frequent Conferences with the States, concerning the Affairs of Poland. The Prince of Orange is expected back here from Frieſland To-Night or To-morrow Morning.

General Poſt-Office, July 3, 1733.

Theſe are to give Notice, That the Poſt will go every Night (Sundays excepted) from London to Tunbridge, and from Tunbridge Wells to London, from Monday the 9th Day of this Inſtant July, during the Summer Seaſon, as uſual.

Treaſury-Chamber, June 19, 1733.

Whereas great Numbers of Deer-Stealers do almoſt daily aſſemble together and enter His Majeſty's Foreſt of Waltham, in the County of Eſſex, with Fire-Arms and other dangerous Weapons, and have lately killed and carried off great Quantities of Red and Fallow Deer, in Defiance of the Keepers of the ſaid Foreſt: Therefore as an Encouragement to the Keepers and others aſſiſting them, in order to prevent any further Deſtruction of His Majeſty's Deer for the future, the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury are pleaſed to offer a Reward of Fifty Pounds, over and above the Allowance by Act of Parliament, to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall apprehend and proſecute to Conviction every or any ſuch Deer Stealer ſo offending, as aforeſaid; which ſaid Reward ſhall be paid to the Perſon or Perſons ſo entituled to receive the ſame, upon his or their producing a proper Certificate of ſuch Perſon or Perſons being ſo convicted as aforeſaid.

The Committee for Letting the Cities Lands in the Account of the Chamberlain of the City of London, give Notice, That they intend to Lett by Leaſe, the Market in Southwark, and the Clerkſhip thereof, and the Toll, Pickage, and other Profits belonging thereto, and the Fair and Court of Pye Powder, and the Cuſtody of the Pound
